With over 30 year's professional experience around and on the sea, Robin Ruddock has developed an intimate knowledge of the Causeway Coast and a passion for the hidden treasures of its landscape. Through guiding outdoor and environmental expeditions by sea kayak, open canoe and traditional boat, he has been privileged to witness its spectacular cliffs, sea stacks, arches, caves and golden beaches from a unique perspective. This talk is a rare opportunity to glimpse our coast through the eyes of a seasoned sea kayaker.
